

Thinking about sustainability – what is the one thing that your school plans to keep going?

Common Theme Answers

Literacy Action Teams, Student Literacy Teams, Literacy Culture, & Community Events

145 responses

52%

Continue the GOALS from Project LINK, Free Books for Students, Keep making Reading Fun, Communication Ongoing, Strategies for Students, & Maintain Technology

135 responses

48%

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.

Face to Face Exit Interviews

Common Theme Answers

Community Literacy Events, Free Books, more parent involvement, reaching all grades and more community events

126 responses

45%

Quality Professional Development / RTI support

86 responses

31%

Digital Resources, Educational Software, & Devices for Students

68 responses

24%

0% 5% 10% 15% 20% 25% 30% 35% 40% 45% 50%

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.

Common Theme Answers – Community Literacy Events, Free Books, more parent involvement, reaching all grades and more community events

126 responses

45%

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.	# of responses
Community Literacy Events / more parent involvement	39
Free Books to students	37
More students reading / wanting to read / brought back a “Love of Reading”	17
Common mindset that all students want to read / ownership with reading	15
LINK brought reading and writing both together	6
Provided tips to parents to them be aware of literacy and which books to obtain	4
“Our Literacy events had more parents show up over our athletic events!”	2
Kindergarten Readiness	2
Feed and Read Program	2
Kids Read Now	2

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.

Common Theme Answers – Quality Professional Development / RTI support

86 responses

31%

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.	# of responses
Quality Professional Development from KEDC	29
KAGAN (student engagement)	14
Achievement in Career Engagement (ACE) platform for high school students	12
RTI support for students	10
“Access to many opportunities for students”	7
Ability to have Literacy Action Teams	7
#readyky on twitter	7

Professional Development

TRAINING

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.

Common Theme Answers – Digital Resources, Educational Software, & Devices for Students

68 responses

24%

Summarize what LINK has meant to you, your school, your community, and your students.	# of responses
Resources available to students and teachers	29
Chromebooks / devices one to one with students	18
Overdrive / MyOn – digital literacy	8
iReady	6
Lexia	5
EVERFI for financial literacy	2

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?

Face to Face Exit Interviews

Common Theme Answers

Communication, Networking, Productive Information, & Time to Plan

111 responses

40%

Paradigm Shift in Literacy, School Culture, & Ability to go in Depth with Literacy Foundations

105 responses

37%

paradigm
shift

Literacy Programs for Pre-K and K-12, correlation with book vendors that promote literacy,
& a deeper impact to working with all grades and subjects within Literacy Models

64 responses

23%

0% 5% 10% 15% 20% 25% 30% 35% 40% 45%

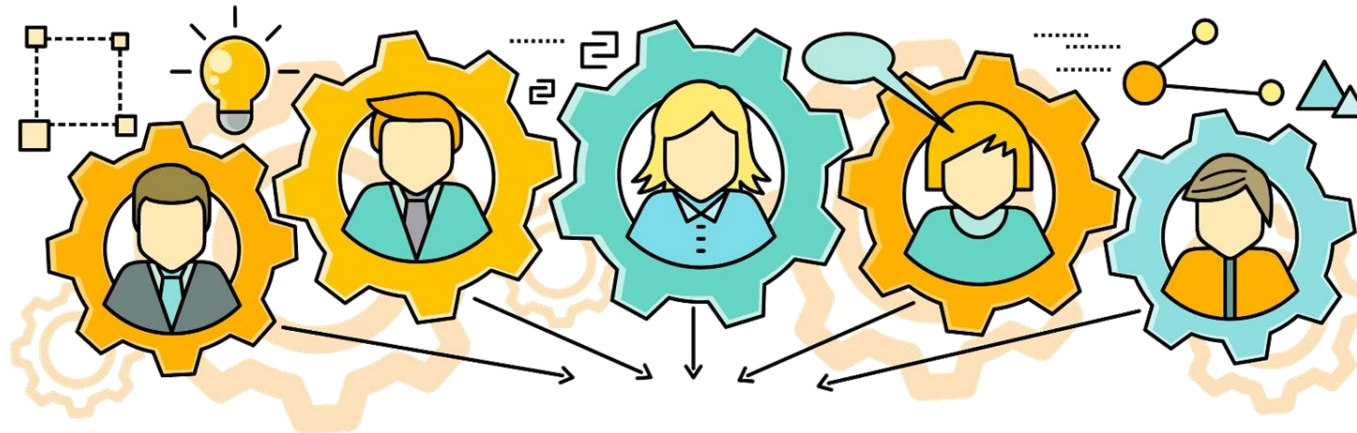

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?

Common Theme Answers – Communication, Networking, Productive Information, & Time to Plan

111 responses

40%

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?	# of responses
Communication K-12 in all subject areas and all teachers	42
Data Walks / Data Analysis for teachers	18
Network Regional Meetings / time to meet and discuss	14
Same goals and vision schoolwide / positive trends across all grade levels	12
Ability to pull in all resources and align them within the Literacy Action Plans	7
Time to revamp RTI model to better fit the needs of all students	9
Professional development help build a solid foundation	9

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?

Common Theme Answers – Paradigm Shift in Literacy, School Culture, & Ability to go in Depth with Literacy Foundations

105 responses

37%

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?	# of responses
Paradigm Shift in literacy / school culture / approach to literacy	32
Help establish relationships with students / positive energy with literacy	16
Have a future impact in all subject areas for all students / pverall student achievement	16
KAGAN strategies to improve student engagement	13
Community outreach with parents and partners	13
Ability to go more in depth with students to help build literacy foundations	10
Improvement on Brigance scores / Special Education Students made positive gains	5

paradigm
shift

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?

Common Theme Answers – Literacy Programs for Pre-K and K-12, correlation with book vendors that promote literacy, & a deeper impact to working with all grades and subjects within Literacy Models

64 responses

23%

What sort of impact do you think LINK will have over the next 5 years?	# of responses
Pre-K and K-12 Literacy Programs	14
Classroom Libraries / Book Fairs	11
Dolly Parton Imagination Library (LINK Partner) / Reading Plus / Literacy Trees	10
Access to technology – “become a creator rather than a consumer”	9
Career Readiness promoted for students in the future	8
More Novice Reduction	7
The one book one day event (all grades / subjects / everyone)	3
SRLC Grants made possible with LINK Model	2

Thinking about sustainability – what is the one thing that your school plans to keep going?

Face to Face Exit Interviews

Common Theme Answers

Literacy Action Teams, Student Literacy Teams, Literacy Culture, & Community Events

145 responses

52%

Continue the GOALS from Project LINK, Free Books for Students, Keep making Reading Fun, Communication Ongoing, Strategies for Students, & Maintain Technology

135 responses

48%

GOAL

Thinking about sustainability – what is the one thing that your school plans to keep going?

Common Theme Answers – Literacy Action Teams, Student Literacy Teams, Literacy Culture, & Community Events

145 responses

52%

Thinking about sustainability – what is the one thing that your school plans to keep going?	# of responses
Literacy Action Teams / meetings to maintain and stay active	36
Promote models for new literacy ideas / Student Literacy Teams	26
Leadership meetings to still include Literacy Action plans	17
Sustain the literacy culture in our schools / teachers have a focus	16
Literacy Events with community partners	16
District Literacy Plans [keep vertical alignment]	15
Literacy Design Collaborative (LDC's) / Best practices Best PD	12
Train the trainer model to support new teachers / Keep the Buy in	4
Keep the expectations with LINK and schools, and student – it was the right thing to DO!!	3

Thinking about sustainability – what is the one thing that your school plans to keep going?

Common Theme Answers – Continue the GOALS from Project LINK, Free Books for Students, Keep making Reading Fun, Communication Ongoing, Strategies for Students, & Maintain Technology

135 responses

48%

Thinking about sustainability – what is the one thing that your school plans to keep going?	# of responses
Established framework / foundation to continue goals from LINK	22
Continue Free Books to Students	20
Keep making reading FUN!!	18
Keep communication ongoing and open with parents	16
Keep promoting KAGAN strategies	16
Digital Learning for students / Maintain Technology	15
Google Classroom for schools	13
Vetted Resources for schools	10
Keep promoting social media for literacy	5

